

PLANS FOR MRS STEWART'S FUNERAL.

BRIEF SERVICE AT THE HOUSE—ELABORATE CEREMONIES IN THE GARDEN CITY CATHEDRAL.

At the funeral of Mrs. Cornelia M. Stewart to-day a short service for the family, immediate relatives and friends will be held at the house at 1 p. m. Bishop Littlejohns, of the Long Island Diocese, will conduct this service and the Rev. Arthur Brooks, of the Church of the Incarnation, will assist him. A full service will be held at the Cathedral at Garden City. The body will be clothed in a white silk shroud and placed in the coffin this morning. The coffin will be placed in the main hall, which opens on Thirty-fourth-st., at the top of the main staircase and just in front of a large brass vase. Two pillows of flowers from Mrs. Stewart will form a part of the floral offerings. There will also be a pall of roses nearly covering the coffin. Between 12 and 1 o'clock the clerks, servants and other employees of the Stewart estate and of the family will be admitted to the main hall to pay their last respects. And, after viewing the body will pass out. During the service the immediate members of the family will be seated in a parlor just east of the hall near other relatives who will occupy rooms east of the hall near the entrance and outside.

The services will be held at the Cathedral on Thursday afternoon at the time of the family will sit.

The train will be taken by the train leaving Long Island City at 2:30 p. m. to Garden City. The houses there are already draped in mourning. There will be no draped of the Cathedral. If the weather is favorable a procession will be formed from the cathedral to the crypt, which is under the columbarium. The only ones who will enter the crypt will be the undertaker's assistants and the men who will be the pallbearers.

A cable dispatch was received yesterday from Charles J. Clark, who is in Paris, stating that he would sail on Saturday from Havre for this city.

DELGADO AND THREE MEN EXECUTED.

END OF THE DESPERATE, BUT UNSUCCESSFUL INVASION OF HONDURAS.

Lord was received in this city yesterday regarding the execution at Tegucigalpa, the old capital of Honduras, of General Eusebio Delgado and three of his associates. They were shot in accordance with the decree of a court martial. General Delgado invaded Honduras in August with thirty men and sixty standards of arms. He gathered an army of several hundred men, but was unable to furnish them with rifles. His undisciplined and poorly armed troops had been encountered with a large force sent against them by President Borgean. In two of the battles the followers of Delgado fought with such fury that they routed the Government troops. When Delgado was Colonel Morey, the well-known Cuban revolutionary, Morey was wounded in the leg in the second engagement. In the last battle the forces of Delgado were routed, and as an officer advanced upon Morey and demanded that he surrender, the Colonel, seeing that all was lost, said: "I will not give you the pleasure of receiving my sword," and immediately drew his own broad one with his pistol.

Delgado and his three men executed were paraded through the streets of Tegucigalpa as traitors and the condemned effects of the various denominations, and the three men executed with him were paraded by President Borgean. The invasion of Honduras, however, was not the work of President Borgean, but of the Cabinet Ministers of President Sanchez, of whom he was the leader.

EACH ACCUSED THE OTHER; BOTH CONVICTED.

Joseph Stein and Samuel Gillette, young men whose appearance was not respectable, were arrested on October 7, each having in his possession a bundle of gold water-colors and a number of banknotes which had been sent from Gales & Cohen, of No. 6 Bayard-st. The prisoners were arraigned yesterday before Judge Cowing for trial. Lawyer Abraham Suydam, who appeared for the men, said that he could not be held in behalf of them and asked the court to let him go. The trial was adjourned until Friday morning.

Mr. Weller, the State's Attorney, said that he had no evidence for his action as to Christian unity, and urged the condemned effects of the various denominations, and the three men executed with him were paraded by President Borgean. The invasion of Honduras, however, was not the work of President Borgean, but of the Cabinet Ministers of President Sanchez, of whom he was the leader.

BITES OF LEGAL NEWS.

Abraham H. Baldwin, as administrator of Daniel A. Baldwin, has sued Henry H. Porter for an accounting and settlement of a claim against the defendant for profits arising out of transactions in the stock of the New York Central Railroad Company, and the amount which had been received from the Battery to River through Broadway and Madison-ave. O. P. Lowry and Charles F. Stone represented the plaintiff and Robert C. Allen appeared for the New York Arcade Railway Company. Edward Lauterbach, H. D. Seig, William C. Conant, and the assistant, Thomas J. Hayes, were for the defense. The trial was adjourned until October 10.

Mr. Weller contended that the opposing party had agreed to pay him a sum of $100,000, and that he agreed from his heart that he was walking along a road, and that he was afraid of being shot. Mr. Weller insisted that the property rights in the company which he represented were of no value, and had no claim to the same.

Mr. Lowry replied that the opposing companies had not complied with the conditions of their enabling acts.

The decision was reserved.

THE COURT OF APPEALS.

ALBANY, Oct. 27.—The Court of Appeals to-day, following the case of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, affirmed the judgment of the trial court in an action brought by the plaintiff against the defendant for $1,000,000, and for $24,773,777 was remanded.

The increase in the number of orders issued during the preceding year was 214,409, or 2.77 per cent, while the amount paid out on such orders showed an increase of $219,803. The number of postal notes issued during the year was 5,999,428, representing $11,718,010, for which $10,333 was received in fees. These figures show a decrease of $1,721,736 in the amount of these notes issued, and a decrease of 1,000,000, or 2.42 per cent, in the number of orders issued during the year, representing $13,819,521, for which $12,477,777 was received.

No. 18, Charles W. Buttler, executor, etc., appellant, art. the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. Argument concluded by Henry E. Day for appellant, and concluded by Henry E. Day for respondent.

No. 19.—The consolidated Safety Valve Company, appellant, art. the Eastern Standard Valve Company, respondent. Argument by R. H. Kimball, attorney for plaintiff, and continued by J. H. Raymond for appellee.

Adjourned until to-morrow at 12 o'clock.

THE CASES OF McCABE AND OTHERS.

District-Attorney Marine received yesterday the final written report of Drs. A. E. Macdonald and A. Metz, Hamilton as to the mental condition of the experts. He would not say what the opinion of the experts was. As Monday will be the first day of the term, Tuesday election day, and Wednesday will be otherwise occupied, Dr. Martine does not expect to call McCabe for trial before next Thursday or Friday. He would not mention the names of any Aldermen who he thought would plead guilty if bribery if a short sentence were granted, but he said that it had been intimated that some of the men would do so. The trial would only be in the result of the testimony of the experts. The party was met by Joseph W. Young, one of the sons of Brigham Young.

HER SEALSKIN SACQUE WAS INSURED.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27 (Special).—Mrs. Lillie Terman, of New-York City, while waiting for a train last night at the Broad-st. station, was robbed of a gold watch and chain and a purse containing $100. The alarm was raised by the passengers who brought them over the party was met by Joseph W. Young, one of the sons of Brigham Young.
